REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members of
Cornwall Partners, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cornwall Partners, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2016, and the related notes to the financial statements. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2016 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

CORNWALL PARTNERS, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2016

1. Organization and nature of business

Cornwall Partners, LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and operates under a membership agreement with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital pursuant to SEC rule 15c3-1.

The Company engages in the private placement of securities and rendering financial advice on mergers and acquisitions.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting and use of estimates

These financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. Income taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and is not recognized for federal and state income tax purposes as a taxable entity. Therefore, the Company's income or loss is passed through to the members of the Company. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for federal or state income taxes. In accordance with U.S. GAAP, management is required to determine whether a tax position of the Company is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position.

4. Regulatory requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital both as defined shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2016 the Company's net capital was approximately $27,000 which was approximately $22,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of $5,000.

5. Related party transactions

In accordance with a services agreement, the Company's affiliate pays for various specified expenses for which the Company compensates the affiliate in the form of a management fee and for various other expenses, such as sundry professional services, for which the Company does not reimburse the affiliate.

During the year 2016, the Company did not pay its parent a management fee. The affiliate agreed to pay expenses of approximately $5,436 on behalf of the Company without seeking reimbursement.

6. Compliance with Rule 15c3-3

The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities. Therefore, it is not affected by Rule 15c3-3.
